Mr. 6009

SUBJECT: Weber Case

1. I am somewhat disturbed over the developments thus far to arrive at a satisfactory solution regarding the Weber Case.

2. On two occasions members of my staff have discussed the case with Mr. Schaak. They have the feeling that consideration of the case is superficial, and that there is an atmosphere of almost certain expectation that the case will be cleared up with full exonerations of Weber through a straight-forward questioning on the basis of available information. This optimism may well be justified, however, we strongly urge that the case be given detailed attention from a CE point of view.

3. More specifically, we feel:

a. That inadequate detailed examination and preparation of the case is being made; little or no effort is being made to collect all available data on Weber prior to interrogation.

b. That no adequate plans have been made for disposition of the case in the future under any eventuality.

c. We feel that any clever long range Soviet agent could easily withstand questioning of the nature now contemplated.

4. I am sure that you must realize that clearing up this case is of great importance to both of us, and we must exhaust all means to establish the true facts in this case.
